This imposing 3 bedroom townhouse is located in a prestigious street in the centre of Álora pueblo and has the added advantage of including a commercial unit at street level. The accommodation extends to 114 m² and is distributed over 4 levels. At street level one enters into a pretty entrance hall hosting very attractive Andalucian tiles. A staircase leads from this hallway up to the living accommodation on the 1st and 2nd floors but there is also currently a commercial premise comprising a large room and two store rooms. It has a separate independent access directly from the street. It has most recently been exploited as a hairdressing salon...(Ask for More Details!)
