? Charming Restored Village Home in Cortes de la Frontera Tucked among the narrow, sun-drenched streets of Cortes de la Frontera - a traditional white village in the Serranía de Ronda - this quietly charming three-storey home is a rare find: beautifully restored and well priced, ready for you to make your own.? Original character, clean canvas

Recently refreshed, the house keeps its lovely original details, including beautifully preserved hydraulic floor tiles, while offering a bright, neutral backdrop for your own design touch.A picture-perfect façade

Crisp whitewashed walls edged in warm ochre, with a small wrought iron balcony spilling from the
